Rocky: Eve, why did you listen to the snake and ignore God's rule about eating the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden?

Eve: The temptation was too much. The fruit looked so delicious and the snake convinced me that I wanted the same wisdom God had.

Ringo: Adam, why didn't you stop Eve from eating the fruit?

Adam: Well, I guess I thought that if Eve could eat the fruit, then I could eat it too.

Rocky: Do you feel that your punishment from God was fair?

Adam: We sinned and we were punished. There is always a consequence for sinning and I am very thankful that God still loves us and cares for us. God created us, God judges us, and God loves us.

Eve: I agree with Adam. I'm not too happy about painful childbirth, but the punishment could have been much worse. God could have completely turned His back on us.

Ringo: Adam and Eve, why did you hide from God when He came looking for you?

Adam: After eating the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, I knew that I had sinned. I didn't want God to see me. I felt ashamed and embarrassed.

Eve: It wasn't easy to talk to God after disobeying Him. I thought He would be angry with us and I was frightened.

Rocky: Did you think that you could hide your sin from God?

Adam: I guess we did, but God is all-knowing and all-loving. He knew right away that we had eaten fruit from that tree. It might have been better to admit our mistake right away and ask for forgiveness.
