The screenshot shows the official website of the Nazarene Missions International (NMI). The header includes the Church of the Nazarene logo and navigation links for 'About NMI', 'Global Mission', and 'NMI Resources'. The main banner features the NMI logo and the text 'Nazarene Missions INTERNATIONAL'. Below the banner are four icons representing 'Praying', 'Discipling', 'Giving', and 'Educating'. A sidebar on the right contains a search bar and a list of links: 'A to Z Directory', 'Local Presidents', 'District Presidents', and 'Contact Us'. The breadcrumb trail reads 'You are here: Home > Local Presidents > Where do I start?'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled 'For the Local NMI President', lists resources such as 'Partner with your Pastor', 'Basic Training for Local Presidents', 'Where do I start?', 'Tips for Local Presidents', 'Mission Education—Resource Overview', 'Resources for Local NMI Presidents', 'Conquering Challenges', 'Many Faces of an NMI Council', and 'Deputation - Scheduling a Missionary Speaker'. The right column, also titled 'For the Local NMI President', has a sub-header 'Where do I Start?' and a paragraph stating 'Here are a few suggestions for how to get started:'. It then lists two bullet points: 'Inform your district NMI president about your new assignment. The district president will ensure you are added to the various address lists so that you receive the resources for NMI leaders. He/she will also want to meet with you for some "basic training."' and 'If you are replacing/succeeding a previous local NMI president, set up a time to meet'.
